Dear Parishioners & Friends!

With the Feast of the Visitation on May 31, we have concluded the Marian Month. You are encouraged to continue praying the Rosary daily. It makes a beautiful family prayer too. This Sunday we celebrate the Ascension of the Lord. Next Sunday we have the Solemnity of Pentecost. With that we end the Easter Season and begin the Ordinary time in the Liturgy of the Church. St Cyril of Alexandria (444) has the following to say about the Ascension: "Let us glorify him who being God the Word became man for our sakes; who suffered willingly in the flesh, and rose from the dead, and abolished corruption; who was taken up, and hereafter shall come with great glory to judge the living and the dead, and to give to everyone according to his deeds; by whom and with whom to God the Father be glory and power with the Spirit, unto ages of ages. Amen."

With Prayers & Blessings!
Fr. Tom

SUNDAY READING

Luke 24:46-53
They . . . Returned to Jerusalem with great joy. (Luke 24:52)

"Parting is such sweet sorrow," as Juliet said to Romeo. Isn't this the way many farewells go? Whether you're sending a child off to make their way in the world or leaving their grandparent after a visit, saying good-bye can be bittersweet. The sweetness lies in your love for them; the bitterness, in leaving them.

Surprisingly, Jesus' apostles do not weep at his ascension. Quite the opposite, Luke tells us that they returned to Jerusalem—the very place where Jesus was executed—"with great joy" (24:52). Such a display of exuberance can make the apostles appear relatable, almost superhuman. What about their deep human connection with Jesus? Didn't they feel sad that after overcoming death, the greatest separation there is, Jesus decided to leave them anyway?

Of course they were sad. But more than anything else, they were filled with joy. They were confident that they would one day follow where Jesus had gone, and then they would be reunited forever. So their hope of seeing him again made their sorrow sweet.

This is the key to our joy as well. By faith, we know that Jesus has gone to prepare a place for us in heaven. But it can still feel as if he has just moved on and left us on our own. One way to counter that sense of aloneness is to imagine Jesus in heaven right now. Think about how he has opened heaven to you, a place you could never reach on your own. Imagine him standing with his Father, your Father. Picture him preparing a place just for you. See the smile on his face as he thinks about opening the doors to your new home and welcoming you in.

Jesus has ascended to heaven and longs for all God's children to join him. Until then, he never stops interceding for you and pouring out a constant stream of grace. All so that we can one day taste the sweetness of heaven.

"All praise to you, Jesus, for opening heaven for me!"

MASS INTENTIONS

The best way to remember our dear departed is by praying for them. And the best prayer we can offer is the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. Masses can be offered for health and healing, in thanksgiving, for birthday blessings, etc. So I encourage you to walk into the parish office and register.

A donation of $10.00 per Mass is requested.
Please make checks payable to:
