Dear Friends!

On November 1, the Church keeps the Solemnity of All the Saints. It is a day of obligation for the Universal Church. It is not an obligation in Hawaii, but you are encouraged to sanctify the day by attending the Holy Mass on Friday, November 1, at 7:30 am. Being First Friday there will be adoration and Benediction at 8 am. The canonized saints are few compared to all the saints in heaven. Among them are included our own parents and grandparents.

On November 2, it is All Souls Day. In the past, the priests were encouraged to celebrate up to 3 masses. We will be having the customary Mass at 7:30 am. As I mentioned before, the month of November is set apart to remember and pray for our dear departed souls. Visiting the cemetery, offering masses for our dear departed, etc. are recommended during this month.

As mentioned last week, let me remind you that the 11:30 am mass on November 3, will be a praise and worship mass. DOMINIC VELASO will lead the praise and worship. Anointing of the sick will follow after the mass for those who need it.

With Blessings!
Fr. Tom

Sunday Reflection

I thank you that I am not like the rest of humanity.

Try to picture the scene. First, there is the Pharisee, a respected member of society, taking up "his position" in the Temple (Luke 18:11). He has a special spot where he would pray, just as he has in his synagogue (Matthew 23:6).

Dramatically and carefully, he lifts his hands in prayer. His phylactery--a leather box tied around his head containing Hebrew Scripture passages on parchment—is wider than most and eclipses his eyebrows. The tassels of his prayer shawl-- meant to be subtle reminders of the Law of Moses—are longer and more luxurious than most, as much a fashion statement as a sign of devotion (Matthew 23:5). He is a striking figure who looks superior to "the rest of humanity" (Luke 18:11).

Now picture the tax collector. He has no special prayer space. He keeps his head bowed so as to avoid the disdainful gaze of the Pharisee. A well-paid member of the Roman bureaucracy, he is dressed neatly but not pretentiously. His cheeks are stained with tears.

He has come to the Temple for one reason. He has recently realized how corrupt he has become. A little extortion here, a little fuzz math there, and he has become quite wealthy. But at what cost? He defrauded people who can barely make ends meet. He has sent men to debtors' prison with no regard for their families. He sees it now, and he is deeply sorry. Words fail. All he can say is, "O God, be merciful to me a sinner" (Luke 18:13)

The Pharisee, pleased with the perfection of his prayer, leaves just as he came in: convinced of his own righteousness and despising everyone else (Luke 18:0). But the tax collector leaves feeling free. With a lighter step and a brave smile on his face, he heads home. Tomorrow he will apologize to his neighbors and return their money. We each have a little of the Pharisee and a little of the tax collector in us. Let's lean onto the tax collector at Mass today and pray, "Lord, have mercy on me, a sinner!"

All Souls Day was started in 998. It's a Roman Catholic day of remembrance for friends and loved ones who have passed away. All Souls Day is on November 2, following All Saints Day.

November 2 is the day on which special prayers are offered for the souls of the faithful which at death have not been cleansed from venial sins, or have not atoned for past transgressions, cannot attain the beatific vision. It is a time to pray for their souls to assist the souls from Purgatory to Heaven.

The Day of the Dead, All Souls Day, is an official holiday of the Catholic Calendar. On this day, three requiem masses are celebrated: one for the celebrant, one for the departed, and one for the pope.
