 PASTOR'S CORNER ***

Focus of our reflection:

Let us live a life full of the spiritual and corporal works of mercy.

Mercy and forgiveness are in the message of the parable of the steward that Jesus tells in our Gospel. The steward is quite creative in dealing with the loss of his job. The steward was not forgiven his debt, but he does forgive the debt of one who owes him a large sum of wheat. Jesus compliments the man for his ability to look beyond earthly wealth to store up for himself treasure in heaven. This appears to be Jesus' way of getting our minds out of our pocketbook and into his Holy book. The Lord desires that we all show such industry in our pursuit of eternal life.

Experience tells us that wealth may leave us or be taken away, but God is a firm anchor. The dollar in our pocket is here today and gone tomorrow, but the Lord is always there for us and all around us. The call of this parable is to take as much care for the spiritual side of our life as we do for the material side. The care we take of our soul is the best investment we will ever make. The parable also calls us to show the same ingenuity, planning and effort in out spiritual life as we do in other sectors of our life.

Blessings,

Fr. Rico Bernadez

PADRE PIO
SAINT PIUS OF PIETRELCINA

Pius was born Francesco, of poor farm workers in Pietrelcina, Italy. From a young age, he longed to become a Capuchin. His father traveled to America to earn the money to support his son's vocation. In 1903, he took the Capuchin habit, and he was ordained seven years later.

From 1918 to his death, Padre Pio bore the visible stigmata, the wounds of Christ—a gift he prayed to have removed, but finally accepted. His fame spread widely, and with this came suspicion, false accusations, and repeated investigation by the Holy Office. "It is under the cross that one learns to love," he said. Padre Pio died in 1968.
