Dear Parishioners & Friends!

On the 11th of February (Tuesday) we celebrate the Feast of Our Lady of Lourdes. It is also the World Day of the Sick. After the 7:30 AM mass there will be the anointing of the Sick. All those who are sick may come and receive the Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick.

As I mentioned last Sunday, starting February 29, a priest will be available for confessions from 3:15 pm to 3:45 pm every Saturday. If someone wants to receive the Sacrament after the 4 pm mass, please request the celebrating priest.

I wish to thank Tina Iwaida for donating the beautiful statue of Our Lady of Grace. The Statue was made in Italy and transported to us. Thanks also to the generous parishioner who financed the beautiful Koa pedestal. Our Facilities Committee and especially Libert got the work done and we are grateful to them.

With Prayers and Blessings
Fr. Tom

Our Lady of Lourdes

On this date in 1858, a beautiful woman first appeared to fourteen year old Bernadette Soubirous, a poor French girl. Clothed in a dazzling white dress girded in blue, the woman appeared in a dirty, dank hole, a stone grotto known to locals as the "pigs' shelter." On March 25, she revealed her name: "I am the Immaculate Conception."

Only four years earlier, Pius IX had declared the dogma that Mary had been immaculately conceived in the womb of her mother, receiving the saving graces of her Son in anticipation of her divine motherhood. Today, the grotto at Lourdes, France receives six million visitors each year.

Saint Bernadette Soubirous

Born the eldest of six children to a desperately poor family in Lourdes, France, Bernadette suffered from asthma from the age of six. At the age of fourteen she was collecting firewood near the river one day when she met a beautiful woman who invited her to pray the rosary. The woman came seventeen more times, joining Bernadette in prayer, urging her to do penance, and pointing out a spring that became a pool of healing water. In the end, thousands of curious onlookers watched Bernadette in her ecstasy. Many were skeptical, but in 1862, the Church acknowledged that Bernadette had seen the Blessed Virgin Mary.

Four years later, Bernadette entered the convent of the Sisters of Notre Dame of Nevers, "I have come here to hide myself," she declared. Anxious to test her humility, her superior assigned Bernadette to the lowest place. When she became ill, she was relegated to the corner of the infirmary. The superior found her one day, "What are you doing there, lazy little thing?" she asked. "My dear Mother," Bernadette said, "I am doing my job." "And what is your job?" the nun asked. And Bernadette replied: "To be sick."

Tuberculosis penetrated the bone of Bernadette's leg, and her death was long and painful. To the end she spoke of her joy. She died reciting the words, "Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for me a poor, a poor sinner."
