Sunday Reflection

*Jesus came to Galilee proclaiming. . .
"Repent, and believe in the gospel".*

Today, as we near the end of the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity, the Church also celebrates the Sunday of God's Word. How fitting, then, that the readings today look at two proclaimers of God's word: Jonah and Jesus. Both proclaimed God's word, and both witnessed the power of that word to unite the people who heard it.

Although Jesus and Jonah were similar, their differences are even more significant. Unlike Jonah, Jesus was no reluctant prophet. On the contrary, he moved with determination from village to village in his desire to preach God's word. Also unlike Jonah, Jesus didn't preach only repentance. He also announced that God's time of redemption had finally come. In Jesus, we see the Word of God himself breaking into history and gathering all God's children into one. As Jesus would later say, "Something greater than Jonah [is] here".

How amazing it must have been to see and hear Jesus, the Word of God, walking this earth! But our celebration of God's word today reminds us that we have that same powerful Word available to us every time we read the Scriptures or hear them proclaimed at Mass. Jesus is always speaking to us.

So just as God's word touched the hearts of people in Nineveh and Galilee, it can move us to repentance and faith. Just as Jesus' words moved Simon and Andrew to leave their nets and follow him, they can move us to reorder our priorities and follow Jesus more closely. And just as Jesus' words called both Jews and Gentiles into one Church, God's word can bring us to unity with our brothers and sisters in Christ. As Pope Francis said when instituting Word of God Sunday, "The word of God unites believers and makes them one people".

"Lord, change us by your word, and make us one so that the world might believe."

Latest Health Update

Dear All!

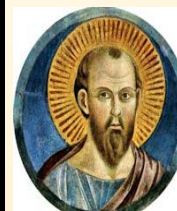

I am back home in Hawaii. A December MRI showed the tumors in my brain were stable. So I went to Houston to continue the clinical trial. But then an MRI on January 6 showed some progression. So my doctor halted the treatment and suggested to do radiation. Radiation can be done here in Honolulu. So I have returned. Please continue to pray for my complete recovery. Although I returned I have to stay in quarantine for 10 days. So you will not see me in Church till the 31st of January.

With regards and Blessings!

Fr. Tom

The Conversion of St. Paul the Apostle

St. Paul, named Saul at his circumcision, a Jew of the tribe of Benjamin, was born at Tarsus, the capitol of Cilicia. He was a Roman citizen. He was brought up as a strict Jew, and later became a violent persecutor of the Christians. While on his way to Damascus to make new arrests of Christians, he was suddenly converted by a miraculous apparition of Our Lord. From a fierce persecutor he became the great Apostle of the Gentiles.

He made three missionary journeys which brought him to the great centers of Asia Minor and southern Europe, and made many converts. Fourteen of his Epistles are found in the New Testament. Around 66 A.D, he was beheaded in Rome and his relics are in the Basilica of St. Paul Outside-the-Walls near the Ostian Way.
