Pastor's Corner

Dear Parishioners & Friends:

What is the really beautiful time in life? Is it the innocent growing period? Is it the adventurous teenage period? Is it the time of achievement and family raising? Is it the middle age or old age? The really beautiful time of life is when you no longer condemn but have compassion. The really beautiful time of life is when we do not judge but understand. The really beautiful time of life is when you come down from the judge's bench and be a friend at court. Once you were pointing fingers, condemning, judging, now you realize that the human heart needs help, love and understanding and the most important of all is forgiveness. Now you are close to God who knows only mercy, love and forgiveness. When you are close to God that is the really beautiful time of life. This is what Divine Mercy Sunday means!

On April 30, 2000, the Canonization of Faustina Kowalska took place and the Sunday after Easter was officially designated as the Sunday of the Divine Mercy. Divine Mercy Sunday is observed in the Roman Catholic Church in which we are encouraged to offer forgiveness and reconciliation to all. What did Jesus want? He wanted to institute a feast of Mercy. The main reason that Jesus wanted this feast to be established is that he wanted to "throw a lifeline" (so to speak) to souls who are drowning in sin and despair. That Life-line life is the feast with all the tremendous promises of grace and benefits which Jesus attached to it. As he said to St. Faustina, He wanted to make this feast day as a "shield, refuge and shelter." In short, Jesus gave us this feast as both a comfort and lifeline for souls.

Jesus requested of Faustina that this feast be observed on the Sunday after Easter. Thus today, the Second Sunday of Easer is called "Divine Mercy Sunday."

God Bless You!

MASS INTENTIONS

The best way to remember our dear departed is by praying for them. And the best prayer we can offer is the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. Masses can be offered for health and healing, in thanksgiving, for birthday blessings, etc. So I encourage you to walk in to the parish office and register. A donation of $10.00 per Mass is requested. Please make checks payable to St Pius X Church.
