SUNDAY REFLECTION
First Sunday of Advent

As the first word of Advent, Christ tells us, "Stay awake! You must be prepared." The unprepared people "in the days of Noah" were distracted by their "eating and drinking," oblivious to the imminent flood. In what does Advent preparation consists? Putting on the Lord Jesus Christ through faith. "Encountering Christ, letting [ourselves] be caught up in and guided by his love, enlarges the horizons of existence, gives it a firm hope which will not disappoint. Faith is no refuge for the fainthearted, but something which enhances our lives. It makes us aware of a magnificent calling, the vocation of love . . . . Faith is a lamp which guides our steps in the night and suffices for the journey" (Lumen Fidei, 53). "Let us walk in the light of the Lord!"

Thank you, Fr. Rico!

Fr. Rico has been reassigned temporarily to Annunciation Parish on the Big Island effective Dec. 2.
We thank Fr. Rico for his services and sharing his love for God with others.

We welcome

Fr. Sebastian Soosai, previously from Maria Lanakila Parish on Maui. If it is God's will, he will be with us until the end of January.
Once again, thank you and God bless,
Fr. Rico
Aloha, welcome and God Bless
Fr. Sebastian.

Holy Day of Obligation
Monday, December 9
Immaculate Conception
Mass
At 6:30 p.m.

No Mass in the morning.

Advent prayer by Saint Elizabeth of the Trinity:
"O Consuming Fire, Spirit of Love, come upon me and create in my soul a kind of incarnation of the Word, that I may be another humanity for him in which he can renew his whole mystery."

Comment by Fr. Sebastian White: It is my firm conviction that if we offer that prayer with sincerity we will have nothing to fear when we stand before our Lord at the end of our pilgrimage, for it will be Jesus meeting Jesus.
