Pastor's Corner

The Our Father

The disciples watch Jesus pray and once he finishes they beg, "Lord, teach us to pray." Yet, these are men who were already very religious, men who already prayed. Why would they ask that? They want to pray with the same intimacy and confidence as Jesus. That is why they must have rejoiced when Jesus instructed them, "When you pray, say: Our Father." For when we belong to God as his children– when we have been "buried with Christ in baptism" - we possess the audacity, like Abraham, to pray for what seems outrageous or impossible. In begging the Lord to teach them to pray, the disciples beg to live their lives with the certainty, passion, and conviction of Jesus Christ. Let us pray, therefore, not only as creatures or subjects, but with the devotion of sons and daughters.

Sunday Reflection

Teach us to pray. (Luke 11:1)

We human beings are big on "how to," aren't we? Search on the Internet, and you will soon learn how to tie a tie, boil an egg, or even train your dragon. The disciples were no different. They had seen Jesus pray. They had heard him praise Mary for sitting quietly at this feet and listening to his teaching. And they wanted to know how to do that too.

So Jesus gave them what we call the "Our Father." Though it looks like a five-step instruction, it is so much more. This prayer reveals much about who Jesus is because it gives us a glimpse into his own prayer life. It also shows who we are and God's vision of how we should live. And it explains how Jesus wants us to relate to his Father—with the same mind and heart that he had as he walked the earth.

Who is your Father? He is perfect, holy, and worthy of adoration. But Jesus doesn't tell you to say, "Holy Father." Just "Father." He makes it clear that your Father is not far away, untouchable, enthroned beyond your reach. He is close to you, eager to breathe his life into you. He hears your voice. He listens when you call and promises to answer. He gives you daily bread generously– all that you need for life and holiness.

The Father loves you. Always and without exception. He sees your worst sins, and still he wants to hold you close. He offers forgiveness lavishly, reconciliation unreservedly, intimacy wholeheartedly. He gives you all the tools and grace you need to become as merciful as he is. And he protects you from the evil one so that you can spread that mercy far and wide.

Jesus gave the disciples so much more than a list of tips for effective prayer. He assured them that they could approach God confidently, knowing he will always listen, always forgive, always provide and protect. And he, who is holy, will do no less for you.

"Father, I want to know you. Help me to grow closer to you and more confident in your love."

Visit the Homebound

Shut-ins were the ones, once upon a time, who brought the light of Christ to many. They were instruments in carrying out the message of Christ.

We want to visit them with Holy Communion and the Word of God.

If, you know of anyone who is in need of a visit, need prayers and would like to receive Holy Communion, please notify the office at 988-3308 to make arrangements to visit them. Fr. Tom or Sister Lucy will be available to meet them. Thank you and God bless all of you.

Crafty Ladies & Men of Manoa wish to announce the dates for our Annual Christmas Bazaar—Thanksgiving Day, November 28th thru December 1st. We are presently in need of men's Aloha Shirts, in all sizes, for crafting our Aloha Shirt Aprons. Please leave donations at the Parish Office.
