St. Luke, the Evangelist

A Greek himself, he wrote the story of Jesus and the Christian community for Gentile readers. He also accompanied St. Paul on some of his sufferings. Probably a physician, Luke may have pioneered as an early member of the church at Antioch. He wrote excellent popular prose with an artist's skill at painting picture stories. Demonstrating an unusual commitment to accuracy, he appears to have fastidiously checked his facts. Archeologists have confirmed many details that he reported in the Acts.

Some of Luke's main themes - prayer, the Holy Spirt, and mercy - suggest that he was a compassionate, spiritual man. He aimed his books to persuade Gentiles that the Christian story was true. So he made it more accessible to them by filing his gospel with accounts of Christ 's openness and mercy. Luke lived a long life and died at age 84.

* PASTOR'S CORNER *

Dear Brothers & Sisters!

In Hawaii we have only two days of obligation apart from Sundays. They are the Immaculate Conception and Christmas. This year the Immaculate Conception falls on a Sunday (December 8). So the Solemnity is postponed to December 9, Monday. Bishop Larry has asked us to keep December 8 and 9 as Holy Days of Obligation. We will be offering an extra Mass on December 9 in the evening (6:30 pm). Please mark your calendars early so as not to miss the day of obligation.

It was a pleasant surprise to see so many of you brought your animals for the blessing on last Sunday. You can see some of the pictures in this bulletin. We have not been able to include all the pictures we have for lack of space. Bear with us!

Prayers and Blessings,
Fr Tom

Sunday Reflection

Has none but this foreigner returned to give thanks to God?

Today's readings feature two foreigners suffering from leprosy: Naaman, the army commander of the king of Aram and ten lepers, one of whom was a Samaritan. They were miraculously healed by the God of Israel — Naaman, through the prophet Elisha, and the ten lepers, by Jesus. Naaman pledged not to offer sacrifice "to any other God except to the Lord" (2 Kings 5:17), and the Samaritan was the only one of his company to return to thank Jesus (Luke 17:15). Both stories contrast these foreigners' faith with the complacency of God's people.

These readings underscore the truth that God is the God of all the nations, not just of Israel. Even in the Old Testament, foreigners sometimes acknowledged Israel's God as their own. When Jesus was preaching in his hometown of Nazareth, he pointed out that God had chosen not the "insider," but Naaman and the widow in Zarephath to whom he sent his prophets (Luke 4:25-27). In a similar way, Jesus praised the faith of the Samaritan who returned to thank him. It seems that God sometimes uses outsider to shake up the people on the inside who may have grown complacent about their faith.

God can still use people on the periphery to open our eyes and give a different perspective. For example, a person who comes to Mass for the first time may have lots of questions. As someone who has been attending Mass for years, you might have taken such rituals and prayers for granted. But now you dig a little deeper to learn more about the liturgy. Or suppose you become friendly with a Christian from another tradition who isn't shy about praying with people. He might show you how to be bolder in prayer.

We can all benefit from a different perspective. So get to know people outside your normal circles. God just might have something important to show you through them.

"Jesus, thank you for all the people who help me to grow in my faith."
