* PASTOR'S CORNER *

Dear Friends,

November 3, Sunday, we will have praise and worship at the 11:30AM Mass. DOMINIC VELASO will lead it. After mass there will be 'Anointing of the Sick' for those who desire it.

November is the month set apart to remember and pray for the dear souls departed. If possible try to offer mass for your own dear departed. Also try to visit the tombs of your dear ones during this month.

With blessings,

Fr. Tom

Sunday Reflection

As long as Moses kept hands raised up, Israel had the better of the fight.

Wouldn't it be nice to have a direct way to know that your prayers are being heard? Moses had it: hands up, the Israelites win the battle. Hands down, they lose. It was as simple as that. But Moses couldn't persevere on his own. He needed help to hold his hands high.

This story tells us that we all need support at times. It can very tiring to keep praying. It takes a lot out of us. That's why we can all appreciate the image of Aaron and Hur holding up Moses' hands as he prayed for the Israelites' victory in battle. His friends stood by him and helped him do what he couldn't do on his own.

The truth is, each one of us needs our brothers and sisters in Christ to hold us up. They help us persevere. You can probably recall times when you've reached out to a friend and asked him to pray with you for something important. His support meant a lot to you.

When you don't see an immediate answer to your prayers, your friends, like Moses' friends, can help you perceive the field of battle more clearly and draw your attention to the ways God is already working. They might remind you of specific times that God has answered your prayers—or theirs—in the past. And when you feel completely in the dark, they can stand with you and pray with you as you do your best to keep moving forward. You can do the same for them too.

So don't go it alone! Maybe you already have someone who can stand with you in prayer, a friend who will join her voice to yours as you intercede. But if not, ask the Lord for someone to partner with you. He loves to send people who will be there to hold you up.

*"Thank you, Lord, for the gift of friendships in the body of Christ."

World Mission Sunday – October 20, 2019 Baptized and Sent

EVERY YEAR, SOMETHING SPECIAL HAPPENS on the next-to-last Sunday of October. WORLD MISSION SUNDAY joins all Catholics of the world into one community of faith. At Mass that Sunday, we recommit ourselves to our common vocation, through Baptism, to be missionaries, through prayer, participation in the Eucharist, and by giving generously to the collection for the Society for the Propagation of the Faith.

This year, Pope Francis addresses his World Mission Sunday message to us as we live out our baptismal call to be sent forth to evangelize the world. This is the mission that all Christians have received, and God gives us the grace to live it out wherever we may be.
