

The feast of the Dedication of the Basilica of St. John Lateran is celebrated by the entire Church. It marks the dedication of the cathedral church of Rome by Pope Sylvester I in 324. This church is the cathedra (or chair) of the bishop of Rome, who is the Pope. A Latin inscription in the Church reads: "omnium ecclesiarum Urbis et Orbis mater et caput." Translated, this means, "The mother and head of all churches of the city and of the world."

The basilica was originally named the Archbasilica of the Most Holy Savior. However, it is called St. John Lateran because it was built on property donated to the Church by the Laterani family, and because the monks from the monastery of St. John the Baptist and St. John the Divine served it.

THEY WERE THERE FOR US.
BE THERE FOR THEM NOW.

Imagine how many thousands of Masses they celebrated so that we could be nourished with the Bread of Life; how many thousands of confessions they heard to reconcile us sinners with our merciful Lord. Ponder the thousands of people who experienced the saving waters of Baptism, poured out by their hands; the countless couples they witnessed joining themselves together as one in Holy Matrimony; the scores of sick people they visited with the healing sacrament of Anointing. Our 23 retired priests dedicated themselves over many years to the service of God's people, and we are grateful for the services they have rendered to our community.

Your donations supplement the diocesan pension fund, covering the costs of sustenance, housing, medical and dental insurance, and other needs as our retired priests move into their elder years.

Sunday Reflection

We do not want you to be unaware . . . about those who have fallen asleep.

We all struggle at times with doubts about our faith, and the Thessalonians were no exception. Some of their loved ones had died before Jesus' Second Coming—an event they thought would happen in their lifetime. Now what, they wondered? How could the dead participate in Jesus' triumphant return? Paul reassures them: they haven't lost their loved ones forever, so they don't have to grieve like those who have no hope. When Jesus returns, he will raise those who have already died along with those who are still alive. For us too, the seeming finality of death can lead us to doubt the truths of the resurrection. Even if we believe that Jesus was raised from the dead, we might wonder what's in store for us after we die. Can God really give us and our loved ones glorified bodies that are never subject to sickness, decay, or death? Yes, he can, but we won't know what this looks like until we ourselves pass through death to life everlasting. That's where faith comes in. Paul was asking the Thessalonians, as he is asking us, to believe that Jesus' resurrection really does have consequences for us. Christ is "the first fruits," the first to be raised; "then, at his coming, those who belong to Christ". We don't know the details, the "how" or the "when." But as we put our faith in Jesus and what he has done for us, he will move us from doubt to hope. Paul consoles the Thessalonians with these words: "We shall always be with the Lord". So will you. You don't have to give in to doubt, which can lead to worry and fear. God is with you now, and he will be with you in the future—whatever that future holds.

"Jesus, I believe you are with me, both now and forever."

MASS INTENTIONS

The best way to remember our dearly departed is by praying for them. And the best prayer we can offer is the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. Masses can be offered for health and healing, in thanksgiving, for birthday blessings, etc. So we encourage you to visit the parish office and register.

Donation of $10.00 per Mass is requested.
