The van we were using for Food Pantry shopping died. You can see it being taken away for "burial". Now we are in need of a vehicle for the Outreach Ministry. If anyone has a van, you can donate to the church, you are most welcome.

Luke 24:32

We are the Disciples on the Road to Emmaus

Homily for Third Sunday of Easter

By Fr. Tommy Lane

We have all travelled the road to Emmaus. In one way or another at some time we have all had our hopes dashed. We are the disciples on the road to Emmaus. Christ joined us on the road and opened up the Scriptures to us so that we could see our cross or our dashed hopes taken up in the plan of God. We asked Christ to spend the evening with us and then we recognized him in the breaking of bread. Now we too say, "The Lord has truly been raised". We know Christ is present with us. Christ is not just present but transforms us, renews us, recreates us just as he restored hope and joy once again in the disciples on the road to Emmaus. The Paschal Candle lighting here reminds us that this happened once again this past weekend when we experienced Christ in a special way during the Easter Vigil. We see the dashed hopes of the disciples on the road to Emmaus in the five grains of incense on the candle representing the five wounds of Christ. But around those five grains of incense we also see that Christ is the alpha and omega, the first and last. Suffering and dashed hopes and crosses are not the last word. The resurrection of Christ has the last word, omega. The light on the top of the candle, the light of Christ brightening our lives, is that last word of Christ.

Sunday Reflection

Hear these words!

Have you ever heard the word kerygma? It's a Greek word that means "the proclamation." The Church uses this word to describe the core message that Peter and the apostles preached after Jesus' resurrection. Today's first reading—from Peter's Pentecost sermon—is one clear example of the Church's kerygma, the key events that are at the heart of our faith:

- Jesus worked "mighty deeds, wonders, and signs" while he was on the earth. The Gospels are filled with stories of Jesus healing people, raising the dead, calming storms, casting out demons. All these miracles showed that Jesus was no ordinary man.
- Jesus was "delivered up by the set plan and foreknowledge of God". Jesus' death was not just a travesty of justice or an accident of fate. No, it was part of God's plan. Jesus went to his death willingly, an innocent victim of the sin that was in the world, so that he could deliver us from that sin.
- "God raised him up". Jesus is now risen from the dead. He broke the chains of death and revealed the promise of resurrection—both for himself and for everyone who comes to him.
- Having ascended to heaven, Jesus has poured out "the promise of the Holy Spirit". Because of that Spirit, every one of us can experience God's life and love active within them. We can know forgiveness of our every sin, we can be filled with the hope of eternal life, and we can receive the power to live a new life here and now.

This kerygma is not just a set of truths to be believed. It's the story of our redemption. It's a series of promises that we can experience: Physical and spiritual healing, Forgiveness, Eternal life, The Holy Spirit.

This is your heritage. This is everything Jesus died to secure for you. This is how much he loves you and treasures you.

"Jesus, I am astounded at your love and generosity—toward me!"
