Holy Trinity

June 7

Pastor's Corner

Fr. Thomas Joseph, PHD

Dear Parishioners & Friends!

Just imagine the greatest tragedies and lack of love that you experienced in your life. Then think about the greatest love you can imagine and the greatest unity you can think about. It would be the Trinity. There is perfect understanding and unity in the relationship that exists in the Trinity. That is what we celebrate in this Feast of the Trinity this weekend. We do have a share in the Trinity. By Baptism we become the adopted children of God Our Father. We also become the brother or sister of Jesus, the Son of God. The Holy Spirit is the love between the Father and the Son and by Baptism we are caught up in this love relationship. As we are brothers and sisters of Jesus Christ, we also become brothers and sisters to one another. Naturally we need to treat each other as true brothers and sisters. So the prayer that should be on our lips today is "Glory be to the Father, to the Son and to the Holy Spirit! As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be, world without end. Amen".

With Prayer and Blessing,

Fr. Tom

MASS INTENTIONS

The best way to remember our dearly departed is by praying for them. And the best prayer we can offer is the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. Masses can be offered for health and healing, in thanksgiving, for birthday blessings, etc. So we encourage you to walk into the parish office and register.

Donation of $10.00 per Mass is requested.

Please make checks payable to:

Sunday Reflection

The Lord . . . proclaim his name.

Have you ever wondered why the Church chooses some readings for its special feast days? Take today's feast, for example. It's dedicated to the Holy Trinity, but nowhere in these readings do we have a clear spelling out of this crucial doctrine of our faith.

In the first reading, for instance, Moses actually gets to see God and hear him proclaim his name: Yahweh. He also learns who this God is: "a merciful and gracious God, slow to anger and rich in kindness". Beautiful truths, but nothing about the Trinity.

Granted, the three Persons of the Trinity do appear in the second reading, but only in the form of a final blessing from the apostle Paul. And the focus seems to be on grace, love, and fellowship more than on the truths of three divine Persons in one God.

Then in today's Gospel, the apostle John tells us about the way God loves his people—through humility, sacrifice, and self-giving. He tells us of a God who "did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through him".

So why do we have these readings for this feast? Because at the heart of today's feast is not a solution to a mathematical puzzle of how God could be three in one. Rather, it's a divine mystery, that our God, who is a Trinity of divine Persons, loves us and longs to reveal himself to us. It's the promise that his revelation has the power to melt our hearts and heal our souls.

A God of mercy and kindness. A God of constant blessing. A God who saves and doesn't condemn. These are the Trinitarian truths he wants to reveal to you on this marvelous feast day. These are truths that can become the foundation for every aspect of your life. Let him proclaim his name to you.

"Lord, help me to live every day in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit."
