

A Blessing indeed as we welcome everyone back to 4pm Mass.

Thank you all for wearing your masks and social distancing!

Parishioners can now join in and follow all the prayers and music during the mass.

A very special Thanks to Christina Iwaida for her kind generosity of the laptop and projector.

It is with saddened heart that we had to bid fond Aloha to the Ray family (Derrick, Amber, Louis, & baby) as they transitioned back to Illinois to be nearer to their family. We thank them for their time with us and pray for many blessings upon them as they enter into their new journey... God Bless!

8:30am Mass
Wonderful to see everyone back at mass again!
Happy Birthday to all those who received their Blessings!

Fr. Thomas Joseph, PHD

Dear Parishioners and Friends!

It is gratifying to see mass attendance picking up. I know it could be annoying to follow the directions of the Ushers. Be patient and try to comply. It is required for our own safety. We had to remove the mass books to avoid reuse of the same material by multiple hands. All do not have their own books. To overcome the problem, we are going to project prayers and hymns on the screen for the benefit of everyone. I am grateful to Tina Iwaida for providing the projector and the laptop needed for it. The parish is deeply grateful.

This Sunday the Church celebrates the Solemnity of Corpus Christi. The Eucharist is the center of the Catholic Liturgy. We achieve the greatest intimacy possible with Jesus through the reception of the Eucharist. We need to bring all our faith, devotion and attention to it if we want to have the benefits we expect. Let us offer our gratitude to Jesus for this great gift, "Blessed and praised every moment be the Most Holy and Divine Sacrament."

With Blessings and Prayers!

Fr. Thomas P Joseph

Sunday Reflection

My flesh is true food, and my blood is true drink.

Have you ever had to go without food for an extended period of time? It wasn't a pleasant experience, was it? The longer we go without nourishment, the weaker we become. It feels as if our life is slowly draining from us—and in one sense, it is.

Jesus' words in today's Gospel make it clear that his Body and Blood are just as vital to us as food and drink are. Without the nourishment of the Eucharist, God's life in us can slowly start to drain away.

Here's an extreme example of how life-giving the Eucharist is. In his book He Leadeth Me, Fr. Walter Ciszek described the risks he took each day to offer Mass at the Siberian labor camp where he was imprisoned: "I would go to any length, suffer any inconvenience, run any risk to make the bread of life available to these men."

The men worked long hours in frigid temperatures. Yet at noon, Ciszek would celebrate Mass wherever he could say it undetected, whether in a storage shack or huddled in a building foundation. "Distractions caused by the fear of discovery . . . took nothing away from the effect that the tiny bit of bread and few drops of consecrated wine produced upon the soul," he wrote.

These prisoners were just as dependent on Jesus' Body and Blood to keep them alive as they were on the meager food they received from their captors. The Eucharist had become their true food and true drink.

Ciszek wrote that he was "occasionally overcome with emotion . . . as I thought of how [God] had found a way to follow and to feed these lost and straying sheep in the most desolate land." Today, may we too be filled with gratitude as we reflect on the generosity of a God who offers his life—and his very self—to us in the Eucharist.

"Jesus, thank you for the life you give me in your Body and Blood."
