Dear Parishioners & Friends!

Please read the communication from the Diocese given below. Bishop Larry is extending the Sunday Obligation dispensation till August 31. He also encourages attending Sunday mass if you can. It is a personal decision each one should be making. I would encourage you to participate in the live-streamed 11:30 am mass if you cannot attend mass in person. It is one way of being united with the parish community. I would encourage you also to attend week-day mass at 7:30 am. We are not crowded and there is a lot of room in our big Church. That way you can be assured of Holy Communion, whenever you attend. Otherwise we will be missing Communion which is essential for us.

HAPPY FATHERS'DAY!

With Prayers & Blessings!

Fr. Tom

Aloha,

Due to the ongoing Covid-19 coronavirus pandemic, Bishop Larry Silva extends the dispensation from the obligation to attend Sunday Mass to all the people of the Diocese of Honolulu and all visitors to the Diocese of Honolulu through August 31, 2020. All who are able to attend Sunday Mass without putting themselves or others at serious risk of infection, are encouraged to do so, but are not obliged to do so.

Mahalo!

SUNDAY REFLECTION

My persecutors will stumble, they will not triumph.

Jeremiah was not having a good week. He had been arrested, beaten, and thrown into prison. Then, having been released, he pronounces an oracle of destruction against Jerusalem and offers a bitter prayer accusing the Lord of "seducing" him into this dangerous ministry. And he prays for the chance to see his enemies' downfall—and to savor it!

Today's reading is not what Jesus had in mind when he said, "Love your enemies, and pray for those who persecute you". We have only to think of Jesus' words of forgiveness on the cross to see how he really wants his people to respond to persecution and enmity.

It's comforting to know that even a great prophet like Jeremiah had bad days. It gives us some perspective on our own lives. Who among us hasn't wished vengeance on someone who has hurt us? We know we shouldn't, we know it's wrong, but sometimes we find it very hard to resist the pull toward resentment and revenge.

The truth is, change takes time, and we have to keep working at it. We have to keep checking our thoughts, examining our motives, and holding our tongues until we develop the virtues that mirror Jesus' perfect, unconditional love. We also have to keep pressing in to stay close to the Lord so that his love continues to shape our hearts.

But remember this: you are not alone! You are part of a Church filled with saints, both famous and obscure, who show that change is possible. You also have friends you can turn to for support when you need it. And most important—and most reassuring—you have the Holy Spirit, who is always ready to remind you of Jesus' love and to give you his grace and encouragement.

Jeremiah had far more good days than bad days because he never gave up. Neither should we.

"Lord, teach me how to love everyone, even the people who are making my life difficult."
