Pastor's Corner

Fr. Thomas Joseph, PHD

Dear Parishioners and Friends!

I must thank you for all the concern, prayers, and help you have extended to me during this long illness I am fighting. Next Saturday 12th to the 18th, I will be away in Houston for further analysis and treatment at the famous MD Anderson Cancer Center. The Bishop has been gracious to give me this opportunity.

During my absence, Fr. Rico Bernadez will take care of you. Please continue to pray for me.

With Regards
Fr. Tom

Feast of the Nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mother

We celebrate the birthday of the Blessed Virgin Mary because our Lady's birth introduced to the world the one who had been graced by a singular honor and vocation, the preservation from the slightest taint of original sin from the first moment of her conception.

In celebrating her birthday, we celebrate the beginning of a life of total and yet ever deepening union with God, a union that allowed Mary to become God's own Mother: Thus we "see with what sentiments of tender devotion the Lord would have us honor Mary, in whom he has placed the plenitude of all good".

Sunday Reflection

Son of man, I have appointed you a watchman for the house of Israel

Just as God appointed Ezekiel as a watchman for "the house of Israel," so has he appointed parents to watch over their own "house," their family (Ezekiel 33:7). Like a prophet, their role is to hear from God, to encourage their children, to warn them about sin, and to help them live in a way that pleases the Lord. This call isn't limited to parents either. God wants all of us to be looking out for each other.

Being a watchman can feel overwhelming. The very word watch means "to guard and protect." In the case of parents especially, God has entrusted them with their children's physical welfare and their eternal welfare. How can anyone ever live up to such expectations? Through intercession. Parents know they cannot control every aspect of their children's lives. There are limits to their influence, especially as their children mature and strike out on their own. But there is no limit to the power of prayer!

Interceding for your family is not a waste of time. You may have a very long list if you include your brothers and sisters and your grandchildren. Still, make it a point to pray for each of them by name, and be specific about the intention you are praying for. Then offer a prayer for everyone: "Lord, protect and guide my family. Bless them and protect them from evil. Fill them with your peace and your love."

How powerful are the prayers of a watchman? Just ask Jesus. On the night before he died, he prayed for the strength to endure the cross. He prayed for the protection of his apostles. He prayed for all of us (John 17:1-26). Two thousand years later, his prayers are still being answered.

So imitate Jesus, the great Watchman of his Church. Commit your family to the care of your heavenly Father. God will never let you down.

"Lord, help me to watch over my family. I trust in your protection."

MASS INTENTIONS

The best way to remember our dearly departed is by praying for them. And the best prayer we can offer is the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. Masses can be offered for health and healing, in thanksgiving, for birthday blessings, etc. So we encourage you to visit the parish office and register.

Donation of $10.00 per Mass is requested.

Please make checks payable to:
