Pastor's Corner

This year 2020 has allowed us to face various kinds of challenges in life but the grace of God has sustained and will always sustain us for the Lord assures us, "Do not be afraid for I am with you."

We cannot thank you enough O Lord for your abiding presence in our life; praise and glory be to you, O Lord God Almighty!

We still do not know what lies ahead of us in this coming year 2021 but we trust that everything will be okay for we are all in your loving and caring hands. We humbly beseech you for this coming year 2021, O Loving and Merciful God, to continue to bless our world, our nation, our state, our community, and our respective families with your powerful and holy presence, and expel all the forces of darkness that is trying to control the lives of people and the world. Set us free from this pandemic of Covid 19 and from different kinds of deadly virus that continues to threaten us. Continue to bless all of us with the peace that only comes from you.

Heavenly Father, may your Spirit guide us always to choose the right path of life and may we always consider you in all the choices that we make in our life.

All praise and Glory be to you, through Christ, Our Lord. Amen!!!

Fr. Rico
Interim Administrator

"Epiphany" means Manifestation.

The "Epiphany of the Lord" is Jesus' manifestation not only to these three Magi from the East, but it's also a symbolic but real manifestation of the Christ to the whole world. These Magi, traveling from a foreign and non-Jewish nation, reveal that Jesus came for all people and all are called to adore Him. These Magi were "wise men" who studied the stars and were aware of the Jewish belief that a Messiah was coming.

The Magi fell prostrate before the Christ Child. They laid their lives down before Him in complete surrender and adoration. They brought gold, frankincense, and myrrh. These three gifts, presented to our Lord, show that they acknowledged this Child as the Divine King who would die to save us from sin. Gold is for a King, frankincense is a burnt offering to God, and myrrh is used for one who would die. Thus, their adoration is grounded in the truths of who this Child is.

Sunday Reflection
Rise up in splendor!

Today we celebrate the manifestation of Christ to the Magi, Gentiles from the East who came seeking the King of the Jews. Their arrival in Bethlehem is the fulfillment of today's first reading, in which the glory of God draws people of every nation to Jerusalem.

But look closely, and you'll find something surprising: "Your light has come," the reading says, and "the glory of the Lord shines upon you". It's Jerusalem itself, symbol of God's chosen people, that is attracting the Gentiles, not a sudden blaze of glory coming from the heavens. It's the shining witness of a people who have bound themselves to the Lord and to each other. That's where the nations will find the glory of God.

Imagine that! We ourselves—the people of God working and praying together, loving, and forgiving one another—we can be the manifestation of God's glory to the world.

If you light one candle on a darkened, moonless night, you may be able to see it from a few feet away. But if you bring hundreds of people together and give each of them a lighted candle, you might see their brightness from a mile away. Bring enough people together, and you'd see the light from outer space! That's God's vision for us. He wants us to put aside selfish, sinful, or prideful attitudes so that we can love each other and serve each other—and so be his light. He wants us to follow him, not just because it's good for us, but because he knows that a life of discipleship brings us closer together and makes us shine out to the world even more brightly.

So join the Magi and bow before the infant Christ today. But as you do, pray for the Church. Pray for your parish. Pray for the domestic church that is your family. Ask the Holy Spirit to keep purifying you, and all of God's people, so that together we can shine more brightly and draw more people to him.

"Jesus, teach us to love each other so that we can fill the world with your glory!"
