I STOLE A ROPE

Sin is a poison that kills the soul. In the Sacrament of Reconciliation it is best to tell everything. Do not be like the man who said in confession, "Father, I stole a rope." He neglected to say that there was a cow at the end of the rope! The more detail you tell, the more you will be healed. The more penance you do, the more the effect of sin will go.

(as told by Fr. Joseph Bill during a healing retreat in St. Patrick's College, Maynooth August 1999.)

Sunday Reflection
He . . . handed him over for us all.

Yes, God loved us so much that he did not spare his Son. But what St. Paul doesn't mention in today's passage is how persistent God was in handing Jesus over to us. Neither does Paul talk about how resistant we can be to this great gift.

At Christmas, God handed over his Son to us as a gift of peace. Mary and Joseph welcomed him openly, and a few shepherds embraced him, but the rest of the world seemed pitted against him. Even Herod and all Jerusalem feared him and trembled at the news of his birth.

Then the Father handed Jesus over to us as a gift of wisdom: "This is my beloved Son," he proclaimed . He sent him to teach us how to live in love with him and each other. But rather than receive Jesus humbly, we questioned his every motive and were hard of heart and slow to believe.

Then the Father handed Jesus over to us as a gift of wisdom: "This is my beloved Son," he proclaimed. He sent him to teach us how to live in love with him and each other. But rather than receive Jesus humbly, we questioned his every motive and were hard of heart and slow to believe.

On the Mount of Transfiguration, God offered Jesus as a gift of glory: "This is my beloved Son," he said yet again, adding an impassioned plea: "Listen to him". Still, even Peter misunderstood the gift. He sought to capture Jesus' glory as a static memorial rather than a living presence.

God even used Pilate to hand Jesus over to us, this time as a gift of sacrifice: "Behold, the man! . . . Take him yourselves and crucify him!" Pilate cried. He didn't even know that he was helping fulfill Jesus' mission. But again we rejected the gift: "Take him away!" we replied.

On Easter Sunday, God gave Jesus to us again, this time as a gift of forgiveness and redemption. And every day since then, he continues to offer Jesus to us in the humble form of bread and wine: "Behold the Lamb of God who takes away the sins of the world." Jesus is here. Accept him. Let him change your heart.

"Lord, I am not worthy to receive you, but you still offer yourself to me. Help me to embrace you so that my soul may be healed."

MASS INTENTIONS

The best way to remember our dearly departed is by praying for them. And the best prayer we can offer is the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. Masses can be offered for health and healing, in thanksgiving, for birthday blessings, etc. So we encourage you to walk into the parish office and register.

A donation of $10.00 per Mass is requested.

Please make checks payable to: St Pius X Church

Mahalo!
