Palm Sunday

My people, what have I done to you? Or in what have I offended you? Answer me. What more should I have done, and did not do? I led you out of the land of Egypt, and you prepared a cross for me. I opened the Red Sea before you, and you opened my side with a lance. I gave you a royal scepter, and you have given me a crown of thorns. With great power I lifted you up, and you have hung me upon a cross. My people, what have I done to you or in what have I offended you? Answer me.

Sunday Gospel Reflection
Abandoned in His Passion

And they all left him and fled. (Mark 14:50)

When we think about the crucifixion and death of Jesus, images of his excruciating physical suffering and death often pour into our minds. But there was another kind of suffering that might have been even more painful for Jesus. Many of his disciples whom he had loved and taught abandoned him when he needed them the most.

It would be hard to imagine how much pain this added to Jesus' suffering and death. The compassionate heart of Jesus certainly understood their fear, and he forgave them. After his resurrection, he appeared to them, and through the gift of the Holy Spirit, they were changed, and they were able to spread the gospel message faithfully to many people in many places.

Where there is unfaithfulness, there is the offer of divine forgiveness that creates us anew. We can always count on that. Let us be grateful that God's forgiveness lovingly changed us when we needed it most

Fr. Kenneth Grabner, C.S.C.

Dear Parishioners and Friends!
You may be wondering what I am doing here. Well I am continuing treatment here. I finished another 5 day course of radiation. Now I am dealing with side effects – headaches, nausea, diarrhea,. Need to deal with it.

It has been more than 2 years since I visited family. So on March 31 I am travelling to India. I will be back on April 29. Please pray for a safe trip. I will not be here for Easter. Let me wish you all a Happy Easter. May the Blessings of the Risen Lord be with you and your dear ones. Though I am not here for Easter, you are in my prayers.

For the last two years I was under treatment and unable to do the ministry. It has been suggested to me to ask for early retirement. So I will be requesting for it shortly. The plan is to move to a senior center by May 1. I will let you know the details once it is finalized. Thank you for your prayers and support.

With prayers and blessings!
Fr. Tom

MASS INTENTIONS

The best way to remember our dearly departed is by praying for them. And the best prayer we can offer is the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass.

Masses can be offered for health and healing, birthday blessings, in thanks-giving, etc. So we encourage you to visit the parish office and register.

A priest is always free to accept an offering for less than or more than the standard amount.

Thank you:
