Birthday Blessings to ALL

Fr. Tom Concelebrating on Palm Sunday at the 8:30 a.m. mass. Thank you Fr. Tom for Inspiring us to keep trying and always go to God .

Thank you all who gave much in many ways to give God the Glory and Praise. I thank all who gave their time, talent and treasuries to bring the liturgy to peoples hearts, to decorate the church and crying room so beautifully, to those who help the people to be welcomed in God's house, to those who visited our sick parishioners or give a helping hand in those in need, for all your prayers and to all the many, many volunteers thank you so much and God bless you abundantly and have a Blessed Easter Season!

Fr. Rico

Reflection on:
Easter Sunday: The Resurrection of the Lord
By Bishop Robert Barron

Friends, our Easter Gospel contains St. John's magnificent account of the Resurrection.

Three key lessons follow from the disquieting fact of the Resurrection. First, this world is not all there is. The Resurrection of Jesus from the dead shows as definitively as possible that God is up to something greater than we had imagined. We don't have to live as though death were our master and as though nihilism were the only coherent point of view. We can, in fact, begin to see this world as a place of gestation toward something higher, more permanent, more splendid.

Second, the tyrants know that their time is up. Remember that the cross was Rome's way of asserting its authority. But when Jesus was raised from the dead through the power of the Holy Spirit, the first Christians knew that Caesar's days were, in point of act, numbered. The faculty lounge interpretation of the Resurrection as a subjective event or a mere symbol is exactly what the tyrants of the world wants, for it poses no real threat to them.

Third, the path of salvation has been opened to everyone. Jesus went all the way down, journeying into pain, despair, alienation, even god forsakenness. He went as far as you can go away from the Father. Why? In order to reach all those who had wandered from God. In light of the Resurrection, the first Christians came to know that, even as we run as fast as we can away from the Father, we are running into the arms of the Son.

Let us not domesticate these still-stunning lessons of the Resurrection. Rather, let us allow them to unnerve us, change us, and set us on fire.

Thank you Jesus!
We all have a cross to carry, we all have a story to tell that life at times is so difficult but it is God who gives us His Divine Love and says Keep going, My Love! I'm right here with you. I will never leave you or forsake you!

MASS INTENTIONS

The best way to remember our dearly departed is by praying for them. And the best prayer we can offer is the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass.

Masses can be offered for health and healing, birthday blessings, in thanks-giving, etc. So we encourage you to visit the parish office and register.

A priest is always free to accept an offering for less than or more than the standard amount.

Thank you:
