Blessed Teresa Fasce, OSA -The Honey Made for Jesus (Patroness of Augustinian Kitchen)

The life of the contemplative nun, Blessed Teresa Fasce, whom we commemorate, though different from that of most of us, nevertheless illustrates the universal Christian virtues of fidelity to God's will at all costs and the practical implementation of the great commandment of love. Though dedicated to the life of the cloister, Blessed Teresa nonetheless accomplished many good things on behalf of those outside the convent and enjoyed the affectionate love of a grateful people.

Maria Giovanna Fasce was born into a family of means in Torriglia, in the region of Genoa, Italy, on December 27, 1881. As a young girl she received a good education and served as a catechist in her parish church, Our Lady of Consolation, under the care of the Augustinian Friars. Inspired by the example of Saint Rita, she determined to enter religious life and despite many obstacles, entered the convent of Cascia in 1906, taking the name Maria Teresa Eletta. She made her solemn profession in 1912 and served her community as director of novices and vicar. In August, 1920, she was elected abbess and was confirmed in this office nine times throughout the following 27 years until her death. The great ambition of Mother Teresa, which she succeeded in converting into a plan of action, was the enrichment of the religious spirit of her community and of each one of the nuns. Her influence, however, reached far beyond the walls of the cloister by means of the initiatives she undertook to spread devotion to Saint Rita and to promote the well-being of her adopted town. Among these were the publication of the magazine "From the Bees to the Roses", the establishment of an orphanage for girls, the founding of a seminary for candidates to the Order and the construction of the Basilica as a place of pilgrimage and the fitting resting place of the saint to whom she was so devoted. During the Second World War she courageously protected the convent and defended the rights of the nuns as well as members of the resistance under attack. Throughout her life Mother Teresa suffered many physical ailments, including cancer and a debilitating condition which at times made it difficult for her to walk. All of this she bore with complete resignation and patience and was an example of fortitude and serenity to the nuns and people of Cascia. She died peacefully on January 18, 1947 and was beatified together with Blessed Elias Nieves on October 12, 1997. Her body is venerated in the lower shrine of the Basilica which she made possible.

Mother Teresa Fasce was a cloistered contemplative nun, not only in name, but also in fact, during the several decades of her religious life. At the same time she was a woman of great vision and action, who had the capacity to inspire others even as she was inspired by the life and message of her patroness, Saint Rita. She reminds us that there is no contradiction between contemplation and service: both are motivated by love and must be expressed in love. <https://www.augustinian.org/saints-1/>

Lady Prudence: The Greatest Moral Virtue

Patience comes in two ways, endurance, and acceptance. But patience is nothing more, but a product of the virtue called "Temperance." According to the Catechism of the Catholic Church, "Temperance" is the moral virtue that moderates the attraction of pleasures and provides balance in the use of created goods. We have many excuses in not letting go of our excessive and often extreme passion of the world. Just like the Sadducees who do not believe in the afterlife justifying hedonistic passions of a man acquiring successive marriages for the sake of convenience, human nature and pleasure. Jesus who is the perfect practitioner and doctor of "Virtue of Temperance exposes the evil intentions of these men and revealed to us the true conduct of the "Children of God" whose rewarded angelic status after the struggles on the world of the living. The depiction of Lady Prudence holding a poisonous serpent on left and a mirror on the right tells us that we must be aware of our real dignity in order to chose rightly and Godly in all our life's priority, to have self-mastery of our lives and our passions, or to risk our final reward by choosing the passions of this world for the sake of convenience and self-gratification, to end up being bitten by the poison of the world of lies.

A Thanksgiving Prayer by St. Vincent Meals on Wheels

Heavenly Father,

Today we give thanks for our many blessings as we pray for those in need.

We give thanks for our family and friends as we pray for those who are lonely.

We give thanks for our freedoms as we pray for those who are oppressed.

We give thanks for our good health as we pray for those who are ill.

We give thanks for our comfort and prosperity as we share our blessings with others.

On this day of Thanksgiving, may the love of God enfold us, The peace of God dwell within us and the joy of God uplift us. Amen.

PRAYER FOR ELECTIONS

Loving God, as our civic elections approach, fill us with the light of your Holy Spirit and the wisdom and courage to be faithful citizens. Guide us with your Spirit to exercise our responsibility to vote, but to first study the candidates and issues according to your will. Let us vote for people and policies that will affirm life in all its stages, from conception to natural death; that will strengthen marriage and the family according to your will; that will make us more attentive to the needs of the homeless and the vulnerable; and that will lead us to be "one nation, under God."
We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.
