Saint Teresa of Calcutta's Story September 05

Saint Teresa of Calcutta, the tiny woman recognized throughout the world for her work among the poorest of the poor, was beatified October 19, 2003. Among those present were hundreds of Missionaries of Charity, the order she founded in 1950, as a diocesan religious community. Today the congregation also includes contemplative sisters and brothers, and an order of priests.

Born to Albanian parents in what is now Skopje, Macedonia, Gonxha (Agnes) Bojaxhiu was the youngest of the three children who survived. For a time, the family lived comfortably, and her father's construction business thrived. But life changed overnight following his unexpected death.

During her years in public school, Agnes participated in a Catholic sodality and showed a strong interest in the foreign missions. At age 18, she entered the Loreto Sisters of Dublin. It was 1928 when she said goodbye to her mother for the final time and made her way to a new land and a new life. The following year she was sent to the Loreto novitiate in Darjeeling, India. There she chose the name Teresa and prepared for a life of service. She was assigned to a high school for girls in Calcutta, where she taught history and geography to the daughters of the wealthy. But she could not escape the realities around her—the poverty, the suffering, the overwhelming numbers of destitute people.

In 1946, while riding a train to Darjeeling to make a retreat, Sister Teresa heard what she later explained as “a call within a call. The message was clear. I was to leave the convent and help the poor while living among them.” She also heard a call to give up her life with the Sisters of Loreto and instead, to “follow Christ into the slums to serve him among the poorest of the poor.”

After receiving permission to leave Loreto, establish a new religious community, and undertake her new work, Saint Teresa of Calcutta took a nursing course for several months. She returned to Calcutta, where she lived in the slums and opened a school for poor children. Dressed in a white sari and sandals—the ordinary dress of an Indian woman—she soon began getting to know her neighbors—especially the poor and sick—and getting to know their needs through visits.

The work was exhausting, but Saint Teresa of Calcutta was not alone for long. Volunteers who came to join her in the work, some of them former students, became the core of the Missionaries of Charity. Others helped by donating food, clothing, supplies, and the use of buildings. In 1952, the city of Calcutta gave Saint Teresa of Calcutta a former hostel, which became a home for the dying and the destitute. As the order expanded, services were also offered to orphans, abandoned children, alcoholics, the aging, and street people.

For the next four decades, Mother Teresa worked tirelessly on behalf of the poor. Her love knew no bounds. Nor did her energy, as she crisscrossed the globe pleading for support and inviting others to see the face of Jesus in the poorest of the poor. In 1979, she was awarded the Nobel Peace Prize. On September 5, 1997, God called her home. Blessed Teresa was canonized by Pope Francis on September 4, 2016.

It with great sadness...

St Pius X Church holds another candle for their loss of a beautiful soul, Abbie Tong, who passed away on Wednesday, August 27.

Abbie held the true epitome of Stewardship meaning.

Our condolences and prayers to the Tong family, Libert and Zachary, for their loss.

Stewardship means:

- Placing God first in our lives
- Recognizing all we have and all we are as a gift from God
- Planning how we choose to give
- Gratefully responding to God's invitation

STEWARDSHIP CORNER

Talent in the context of Stewardship is not necessarily a development only of art and music in contemporary life.

The Gift of Talent in Stewardship is to return to God all the blessings He gave us with a specific purpose and mission. A mission that is meant to be ours for a lifetime.

Talents may be manifested in many ways. Some by design, others by opportunities. A gift of your talent can be preparing a simple dinner for an elderly person living alone who desperately needs help. Or a seamstress who provides a pattern and sews clothing for the less fortunate. Perhaps, a licensed driver offers a handicapped person a ride to a doctor appointment.

As the need arises, offer your talent in appreciation to our Heavenly Father for the Gift of Talent. It can be a simple task. God knows that using your talents for His sake, we become better people and grow deeper in our faith.

Use your God given talent and offer it to serve in the ministries of your parish to grow in faith and bring others to the church.

This is the beauty of Stewardship.

HOW CAN WE THANK GOD FOR OUR BLESSINGS?

Adult Religious Education Classes

(beginning in September)

The OCIA (Order of Christian Initiation of Adults) program is the process through which adults, 18 and older can become full members of the Catholic Church, involving spiritual formation and the reception of Sacraments. These weekly meetings are designed for individuals who wish to join the Catholic Church and receive Baptism, Confirmation, and/or the Eucharist.

This process emphasizes a spiritual journey that fosters a deep relationship with JESUS and HIS Church, reflecting the beautiful Sacred Traditions established in the early Church.

Meetings will be held after the 11:30 a.m. Mass; and will be coordinated by Dominic Olaso (Head of the Diocesan Evangelization TaskForce, Campus Minister at Our Lady of Good Counsel School, and Music Ministry Leader for the 11:30 a.m. Mass).

Registration forms can be found on the table at the back of the Church or stop by the church office located in the hall.

USA Labour Day

USA Labour Day is observed on the first Monday of September. On June 28, 1894, President Grover Cleveland signed a law and Congress passed an act making the first Monday in September of each year a national holiday. Labor Day is an annual celebration of the social and economic achievements of American workers. The holiday is rooted in the late nineteenth century, when labor activists pushed for a federal holiday to recognize the many contributions workers have made to America's strength, prosperity, and well-being. Labor Day is still celebrated in cities and towns across the United States with parades, picnics, barbecues, fireworks displays and other public gatherings.

PRAYER BEFORE WORK TO ST. JOSEPH THE WORKER

(Composed by Pope St. Pius X)

O Glorious Saint Joseph, model of all those who are devoted to labor, obtain for me the grace to work in a spirit of penance for the expiation of my many sins; to work conscientiously, putting the call of duty above my natural inclinations; to work with thankfulness and joy, considering it an honor to employ and develop by means of labor the gifts received from God; to work with order, peace, moderation, and patience, never shrinking from weariness and trials; to work above all with purity of intention and detachment from self, keeping unceasingly before my eyes death and the account that I must give of time lost, talents unused, good omitted, and vain complacency in success, so fatal to the work of God.

All for Jesus, all through Mary, all after thy example, O Patriarch, Saint Joseph. Such shall be my motto in life and in death.

Amen.

Prayer to St. Joseph For Workers

Joseph, by the work of your hands and the sweat of your brow,
you supported Jesus and Mary,
and had the Son of God as your fellow worker.
Teach me to work as you did,
with patience and perseverance, for God and for those whom God has given me to support.
Teach me to see in my fellow workers
the Christ who desires to be in them, that I may always be charitable and forbearing towards all.

Grant me to look upon work
with the eyes of faith,
so that I shall recognize in it my share in God's own creative activity and in Christ's work of our redemption, and so take pride in it.

When it is pleasant and productive,
remind me to give thanks to God for it.
And when it is burdensome,
teach me to offer it to God,
in reparation for my sins
and the sins of the world.

Amen.
